

Dear Nursing Student(s),

The University of Prince Edward Island is proud to be hosting the Canadian Nursing Students' Association (CNSA) 2011 Atlantic Regional Conference in Charlottetown, PE. We are pleased to invite you to participate in the Atlantic Regional Conference, with the theme 'Nursing: Personal and Professional Growth through an Ever-Evolving Profession' from October 21st to 22nd, 2011. The conference will be held at the Rodd Charlottetown Hotel, 75 Kent Street, Charlottetown, PE.

The CNSA's annual Regional Conference aims to promote professional and personal development and provide an opportunity for networking and discussion in the field of nursing. We have a wonderful list of speakers who will share their passion for learning and their stories of professional and personal growth that we're sure you will all learn from. As nurses, it is our duty to grow and learn as we practice over the years and we must realize that we will not only learn on a formal level but also from the people we encounter from day to day. Our goal at this year's conference is to make you all aware of these learning opportunities so we can take advantage and grow as a person and as a professional. We hope this weekend leaves you feeling empowered and encouraged to take advantage of any and all learning opportunities as you advance throughout your career.

Enclosed with this letter is your registration form. Early registration is available until October 7th, 2011 at a reduced rate. Regular registration will be available from October 8th until October 18th, 2011.
